The start of this years Aspen Cross Country town series took place on the immaculately groomed Aspen Golf Course. 22 racers lined up under a cloudless blue sky for the 8km race. The snow was cold but the air was warm as Pierre Wille took the lead from the start and never relinquished it. As the field came into the stadium it looked like there was going to be a 3 man sprint For 2nd. Mike Trecker led the sprint from start to finish for 2nd with Tim Clement hot on his tails while Greg Rhodes faded for 4th. Natalie Ward followed next, winning the women's race and finishing 5th overall. Jean Coulter and Helen Carlsen rounded out the top 3 women. The next race in the series will be the Silverboom, a 12km Freestyle race on the Snowmass Golf Course on Dec 23. Go to www.utemountaineer.com or call 925-2145 for more info.

Wille and Ward win 35th Silverboom

Locals score second consecutive Town Series victories

Aspen local Nordic skiers Pierre Wille and Natalie Ward won the 35th Silverboom 12K freestyle race, the second event in the Aspen Town Nordic Series. The Silverboom was held on the Snowmass Club Golf Course and has reverted to a freestyle race after being held in the classic style for many years. A bluebird day with cold snow treated racers to perfect racing conditions as 34 racers took to the start of the 1 lap Citizen and 2 lap Open race.

Wille and Ward's wins represent their second in as many races. Both won the Nordic Opener 8K freestyle on the Aspen Golf Course in equally convincing style. Wille blasted from the start line and immediately grew his gap to 30 seconds on the first lap; which he completed in 15 minutes. Tim Clement of Aspen and Robert Woerne of Glenwood Springs chased but neither considered trying to catch the leader. Wille held his pace turning in a 16 minute second and final lap to win by over 70 seconds. Clement came in second with Woerne a further 50 seconds back. Ward raced with Aspen local and current collegiate racer Jennifer Hamilton for the first lap and was anticipating a sprint finish until Hamilton pulled over competing only in the 1 lap event. Becky Anslyn was second in the women's race with Rachelle Anslyn third.

Race director and organizer Mark Kincheloe of the Snowmass Cross Country Center declared the race a success despite difficulty finding staff for the holiday timed event. After the race, participants and spectators enjoyed free food and drinks as well as a raffle and awards ceremony. The Aspen Town Series continues on Saturday December 30, 9:30 am with 7.5 and 15K freestyle races at the Ashcroft Ski Touring Center. Go to www.utemountaineer.com or call 925-2145 for more info
